

Plan information and resources just for you

We value our partnership to help keep your employees healthy and informed

We are committed to making the healthcare experience simpler and easier to manage. Your Employer Resource Center was developed with that in mind. It is a personalized website tailored to your company's specific Anthem health offerings.

This website is a key resource for plan administrators, allowing you to find your Anthem plan information as well as materials to help your employees better understand their benefits. The resources on your website such as flyers, videos, and helpful website links are compiled just for your company.

Your business is unique

With relevant information gathered in one place just for your group, you can quickly view, download, and share materials about your plan.
